- 1 cup dark chocolate chips
- 1/2 cup dried blueberries

Preparation

- 1) In large bowl, combine ingredients; mix well. Store in covered container.

Tips

- Cooking Gluten Free?: Always read labels to make sure each recipe ingredient is gluten free. Products and ingredient sources can change.
- For a fun alternative, substitute gluten free yogurt-covered pretzel twists for the yogurt-covered raisins.
- Banana chips vary widely by brand. Some are dehydrated, while others are fried. Some are very thin and salty, like potato chips; others are thick and chewy. Experiment with different brands until you find your favorite.
- Other roasted, salted nuts can be used in place of the almonds. Try peanuts, cashews or even mixed nuts.
